

INDEX

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER ONE

THE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW ECONOMIC CONTEXT

1. Approach
2. The origins of the institutionalization process regarding the international economy
  - 2.1. Free trade system
  - 2.2. The global free trade system
3. The contemporary economic policy
  - 3.1. Theoretical considerations
  - 3.2. The Washington Consensus
  - 3.3. The goals of the millennium
4. The economic globalization
  - 4.1. The conceptualist approach
  - 4.2. Historical development
  - 4.3. Critiques and alternatives
5. Economic analysis and IEL
  - 5.1. General ideas
  - 5.2. The economic analysis integrative elements concerning the IEL

CHAPTER TWO

CRITIQUE PERSPECTIVES REGARDING THE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW

1. Approach
2. Axiology Perspective
  - 2.1. General Remarks and considerations on the adjective elements
  - 2.2. Considerations regarding the substantive elements
3. A legal-humanistic perspective
  - 3.1. Consideration on human rights
  - 3.2. Gender and human rights considerations
4. The sustainable consumption perspective
  - 4.1. Considerations on environment and development
  - 4.2. Considerations regarding financing and development
  - 4.3. Considerations regarding the advancement's benefits

CHAPTER THREE

THE INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW CONSTITUTIVE ELEMENTS

1. Approach
2. The classic constitutive elements
  - 2.1. Concept and object
  - 2.2. Sources
  - 2.3. Subjects
  - 2.4. International responsibility
3. IEL contemporary constitutive elements
  - 3.1. The international relations dynamic and the IEL
  - 3.2. The IEL, soft law and hard law
  - 3.3. The global govern, the treaties regime and the IEL

CHAPTER FOUR

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC LAW SCOPE AND ESTRATEGIC ORGANISMS

1. Approach
2. Common remarks
  - 2.1. Methodology and purposes
  - 2.2. Considerations regarding the classic legal status
3. Financial scope: the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank
  - 3.1. General Remarks
  - 3.2. Institutional context
  - 3.3. Goals
  - 3.4. Organizational Structure
  - 3.5. The IMF contemporary duties
  - 3.6. The WB contemporary duties
  - 3.7. A critique on the IMF and WB duties: special remarks towards the legal-humanistic perspective
  - 3.8. Substantive reaction on the critiques: the IMF and WB new conjunctives functions concerning the fight against poverty and the
4. Trade scope: the World Trade Organization
  - 4.1. General Remarks
  - 4.2. Background and introduction to the negotiation rounds
  - 4.3. Organizational structure
  - 4.4. WTO and global trade system purposes and principles
  - 4.5. Substantive function: global trade system negotiation and administration
  - 4.6. Adjective function: disputes settlement system administration
  - 4.7. General critique on the WTO functions
  - 4.8. Critiques reactions: special remarks regarding the sustainable consumption
  - 4.9. ¿Quo vadis?: general tendencies