

Presentation

Background

Object of the patent

Legal nature of the patent

Conclusions

Date of start of the privilege given by the patent

One privilege per each invention

Random characteristics of the patent

Social and Public characteristics of the patent

Requirements to patent an invention

Novelty of the invention

The inventive activity

Results of the inventive activity

The industrial use

Exceptions to the right to the exclusive use given by a patent

Rights provided by a patent

Term and rights provided by a patent

Layout designs (topography) of integrated circuits

Plant varieties

How to register them

Foreign applications

Small inventions

The patent application. Formal requirements

Persons entitled to apply for the patent

Inventions by employees

Systems to grant patents

Free system

Previous examination system

Legal characteristic of the patent application

International priorities

The Paris Convention for the protection of the industrial property

Analysis of the novelty

The Patent Cooperation Treaty

The specification
“Generic” and “specific” inventions
The drawings
The summary

Deposit of biological material

The Budapest Treaty

The claims

The claims should not be functional
Claims on apparatus or machines
Claims on processes or methods
Claims of utility models
Claims of compounds (chemicals)
Jepson type claims

Examinations of the patent application

The application filed
Publication of the application
Substantive examination
Additional information
Answering to the office actions
Rejection of the application
Administrative reconsideration

Issuance of the patent

Who should issue the patent certificates

Invalidation

Partial invalidation
Invalidation presumption
List of legal causes of invalidation
The prior examination is not guarantee of validity
Parties in the invalidation procedure
Forum
The appropriation action

Misappropriation of patents

Infringements and administrative penalties

False claim of patents
Misappropriation during the patent application process
The assignee has action
The licensee may have action
Penalties

Classification of actions

Civil actions due damages and lost of profits

Preliminary measures through civil proceeding

Judicial forum

Bibliography

Analytic Index